

Thank you for considering a BSDCan sponsorship! Your help produces tangible short and long term benefits to the BSD community around the world and the software it produces.

BSD conferences like BSDCan:

- Bring together the fundamental architects of the Internet and operating systems
- Equally welcome new and familiar contributors and participants
- Need our help to make their next 20 years as successful as their first!

 Please provide the organizers printed materials one week in advance. We are happy to suggest local printers.

 Speaker travel is one of our top expenses and every form of contribution helps. Covering the cost of your organization's speakers helps tremendously and we appreciate all assistance for additional speakers!

Your BSDCan 2024 sponsorship will guarantee BSDCan's continued:

- Definitive Technical Content
- Video Streaming and Sharing
- Sponsored Speaker Travel
- T-Shirts and Tote Bags
- A Social Event to say thanks to all involved!
- Our famous auction that helps the Ottawa Mission

I welcome your questions and ideas!
